

Pseudonyms

A pseudonym is a false name that a person adopts. The word comes from two Greek words, pseud, meaning “false” and onyma, meaning “name.” Can you match the pseudonyms in the left column with the person’s real name?

Pseudonym	Real Name
___ Jennifer Aniston	A. Marshall B. Mathers III
___ Sting	B. Cherilyn Sarkisian La Piere
___ Cher	C. Audrey Faith Perry
___ Tom Cruise	D. Tracy Morrow
___ Eminem	E. Mary Ann Evans
___ George Eliot	F. Winona Horowitz
___ Gerald R. Ford	G. Daniel Lawrence Whitney
___ Faith Hill	H. Margaret Mary Emily Anne Hyra
___ Hulk Hogan	I. Gordon Sumner
___ Ice-T	J. Thomas Mapother IV
___ Queen Latifah	K. Terry Jean Bollette
___ Demi Moore	L. Dana Owens
___ Kid Rock	M. Christopher Bridges
___ Ludacris	N. Robert Ritchie
___ Meg Ryan	O. Annie Mae Bullock
___ Winona Ryder	P. Daniel Handler
___ Larry the Cable Guy	Q. Samuel L. Clemens
___ Tina Turner	R. Demetria Guynes
___ Mark Twain	S. Jennifer Anistopoulou
___ Lemony Snicket	T. Leslie Lynch King, Jr.

For Discussion

People choose pseudonyms for a variety of reasons. What advantages might some of the names above have over the person’s real name? (Hint: Consider each person’s profession and historical time.)

Writing Task

If you were to use a pseudonym, what might it be? Consider the sounds and meaning of a name as you choose a pseudonym for yourself. Write a paragraph explaining the advantages it might have over your real name.

Answers

- S Jennifer Aniston = Jennifer Anistopoulou
- I Sting = Gordon Sumner
- B Cher = Cherilyn Sarkisian La Piere
- J Tom Cruise = Thomas Mapother IV
- A Eminem = Marshall B. Mathers III
- E George Eliot = Mary Ann Evans
Mary Ann Evans published Silas Marner and other novels at a time when women were not accepted as writers, so she used a masculine pseudonym.
- T Gerald R. Ford = Leslie Lynch King, Jr.
His mother left an abusive marriage when Ford was a baby. She renamed her son after his stepfather when she remarried, and he made the change permanent when he was 13.
- C Faith Hill = Audrey Faith Perry
- K Hulk Hogan = Terry Jean Bollette
- D Ice-T = Tracy Morrow
- L Queen Latifah = Dana Owens
- R Demi Moore = Demetria Guynes
- N Kid Rock = Robert Ritchie
- M Ludacris = Christopher Bridges
- H Meg Ryan = Margaret Mary Emily Anne Hyra
- F Winona Ryder = Winona Horowitz
- G Larry the Cable Guy = Daniel Lawrence Whitney
- O Tina Turner = Annie Mae Bullock
- Q Mark Twain = Samuel L. Clemens
Twain's pseudonym was based on a river term indicating the water was safe enough for steamboats to travel. Pseudonyms were common among writers in the American West in the last 1800s.
- P Lemony Snicket = Daniel Handler