

Name _____

Date _____

Dear Students,
Good grammar is especially important when you're trying to scam someone. Can you find 4 places where verbs are used incorrectly in this fraudulent email?

Update Your Information.

It has came to our attention that your MySite billing information are out of date.

- This require you to update your billing information as soon as possible.
- This billing update is also a new MySite security statement which goes according to the established norms on our terms of service (TOS) to reduce the instance of fraud on our website.

Please update your records : A failure to update your records may result on a suspension of your account.

 Update your information now

This new security statement will helps us continue to offer MySite as a secure and cost-effective payment service.

We appreciate your cooperation and assistance.

This writer used verbs incorrectly in 4 places. List them here and correct them:

Can you find other places that contain weak writing? List them and tell how you would make the writing stronger.